

BIOCHEMISTRY SOCIETY
IMPERIAL COLLEGE

Report (12-02-2018)

Biochemistry Society

Merchandise

Hoodies

- Final order has been sent, waiting for invoice
- 70 sold (£17.50 per unit, subsidised by £2 = £140 subsidy)
- £250 subsidy from EY in exchange for logo on the hoodies (still processing their sponsorship)
- £110 profit

Events

Past

QuadBio Event – 25 Jan 2018

- Very successful with over 300 tickets sold
- No cost for any society involved, Embargo was in charge of ticketing system, they processed all sales, so no need for drawing up a budget

Pizza Night at Café Forum – 9 Feb 2018

- Everything ran smoothly with drinks after at the Union
- 33 tickets sold, £165 made
- Paid £264 (£99 loss)

Coding 101 w/ DocSoc – every Monday (6 sessions), starting Mar 5

- Massive success, 120 sign-ups filled in a day and additional 15 sign-ups filled in less than a minute
- Positive response on first session, will prepare a questionnaire after all sessions are complete
- No cost, but provided pizzas for the DocSoc volunteers, which was funded by the DoLS

Upcoming

EEE-BioChemSoc Night – 15 Feb 2018

- Free drink voucher for first 100 people
- Cost split in half between BioChemSoc and EEEsoc
- Will spend up to £150 (voucher for drink up to £3)

Boozy Bowling – Feb 27

- Contacting Tenpin Acton

EY Assessment Centre and Interview Training Bootcamp – Feb 27, Mar 6

- No cost to us, they will subsidise any hospitality like last time

Easter Pub Crawl – Mar 15

- Free, no cost

Financial

Enterprise Fund

- Applied, had an interview about it last week, will give us the final result this week
- Hope to obtain around £400 for events and workshops